

12 - 2pm
Lunch and networking from 12.00

Date	Title	Speaker	Content
Thursday 8 th Oct 2009	The Importance of Medical Research to Scotland	Rhona Allison Senior Director of Life Sciences, Scottish Enterprise	Will provide a perspective in relation to the Scottish economy and infrastructure and discuss the importance of medical research to the life sciences agenda
Thursday 12 th Nov 2009	Research and the Use of Human Tissue: Glasgow's Model	Jane Hair Bio-Repository Manager	There will be an outline of the legislation relating to the use of Human Tissue in research. The structure in Glasgow for supporting researchers and recording patient's wishes will be discussed.
Monday 7 th Dec 2009	NRSCC: Who are we? What do we do?	Dr. Alison Walker National Coordinator NHS Research Scotland Coordinating Centre (NRSCC)	The role of NHS Research Scotland Co-ordinating Centre (NRSCC) in streamlining the R&D approval process for multi-centre research in Scotland will be explained. What the service delivers and what this means to research applicants will be discussed.
Thursday 7 th Jan 2010	Green for Go: the approvals you need to conduct Clinical Research in the NHS	Dr Judith Godden Scientific Officer, WOSRES Dr Lynda McSorley Governance Manager, NHS GG&C	The session will explain the process and documents required to obtain the relevant approvals for all types of clinical research projects
Thursday 11 th Feb 2010	Use of Patients Records in Research	Prof Francis Mair	Discussing "Towards a Consensus for Best Practice, Use of patient records from general practice for research" Wellcome Trust June 2009
Thursday 11 th March 2010	Navigating Paediatric Research	Dr Faisal Ahmed Consultant Paediatrician	Will provide an overview of Paediatric Research in Glasgow and the challenges paediatric researchers face
Thursday 8 th April 2010	What are data?	Sharon Kean	This session will cover the different types of data within research, the storage and archiving needs for the various types of data and study design
Thursday 6 th May 2010	Lessons from MHRA Inspection	Dr Lynda McSorley	NHS Greater Glasgow & Clyde, in its capacity as sponsor of non-commercial clinical trials, is subject to inspection by the MHRA. This session will cover the inspection process from preparation through to post-inspection